What's Happening for Kids and Tweens at the Headquarters Library

Volume 37 • March 2018

NEXTREADS NEWSLETTERS

It seems like each generation of kids has their very own language. With words like basic, fam, swag and bae floating around, it is easy to get lost in the lingo - don't even get us started on decoding emojis! Sometimes library jargon can be just as difficult to decipher and keeping up with our trends can be yet another parenting chore. Thankfully, the Spartanburg Library makes it easy to keep your family current. With Library Aware's NextReads Newsletters you'll receive a concise, informative bibliography of new books every month. To subscribe, simply go to the catalog on our library website's homepage, select 'Keyword' from the drop down menu under 'Search.' In the Navigation Pane under Resources select 'NextReads Newsletters.' Depending on your family's needs you can sign up for Kids' Books, Picture Books, and/or Tween Reads. Enough with the jargon, head into our stacks and pick up a good book!

GLOSSARY

Bibliography – In this case, a list of suggested books based on a subject.

Catalog - A database listing and describing the books, journals, government documents, audiovisual and other materials held by a library.

Keyword - A significant or memorable word or term that indicates a subject and is often used as a search term.

Stacks - Shelves in the library where materials - typically books - are stored.
