

teen advisory group

{application to join}

The goal of the Teen Advisory Group is to make the library a better place for teens.

It is open to approximately 30 dedicated teens between the ages of 12-18 or in grades 7-12. Members have input on events, contests, and library materials. They must have a desire to help the community and love the library. Perks include volunteer credit, advance copies of teen books, snacks, meeting other teen readers, and experience to add to college applications and resumes!

- Have you ever attended a teen event at the library? If so, which one(s)?

- What is your favorite teen book? Who is your favorite teen author?
book: _____ author: _____
- What is the last teen book you've read?

- Describe yourself in 100 words or fewer.

- TAG meets once a month, usually on the second Thursday. Is there any reason you'd miss multiple TAG meetings?

To join TAG, you must commit to attend monthly meetings at the Headquarters Library (located at 151 S. Church St., Spartanburg, SC 29306). If you need to miss a meeting, call 596-3506 and leave a message or email susanm@infodepot.org. Membership is limited, so repeated absences may result in your dismissal. You must attend 4 meetings after your application is approved to become an official member and you must attend at least 8 meetings in a 12 month period to maintain your membership. If you would like to apply to join, complete this form and return it to any Spartanburg County Public Library location. Thank you for your interest!
