

Library Tattoo Design Challenge!

Calling all young artists! Do you love to draw? Have a creative idea that represents your love for the library? Now's your chance to have YOUR artwork turned into a real temporary tattoo for the library!

How to Participate:

- 1. Create an original design that celebrates books, reading, or the library.
- 2. Keep it simple! Bold lines and minimal details work best for tattoos.
- 3. Submit your design by Tuesday, September 30th to any Spartanburg County Public Libraries' location.
- 4. The winning design will be transformed into a temporary tattoo for library giveaways!

Who Can Enter?

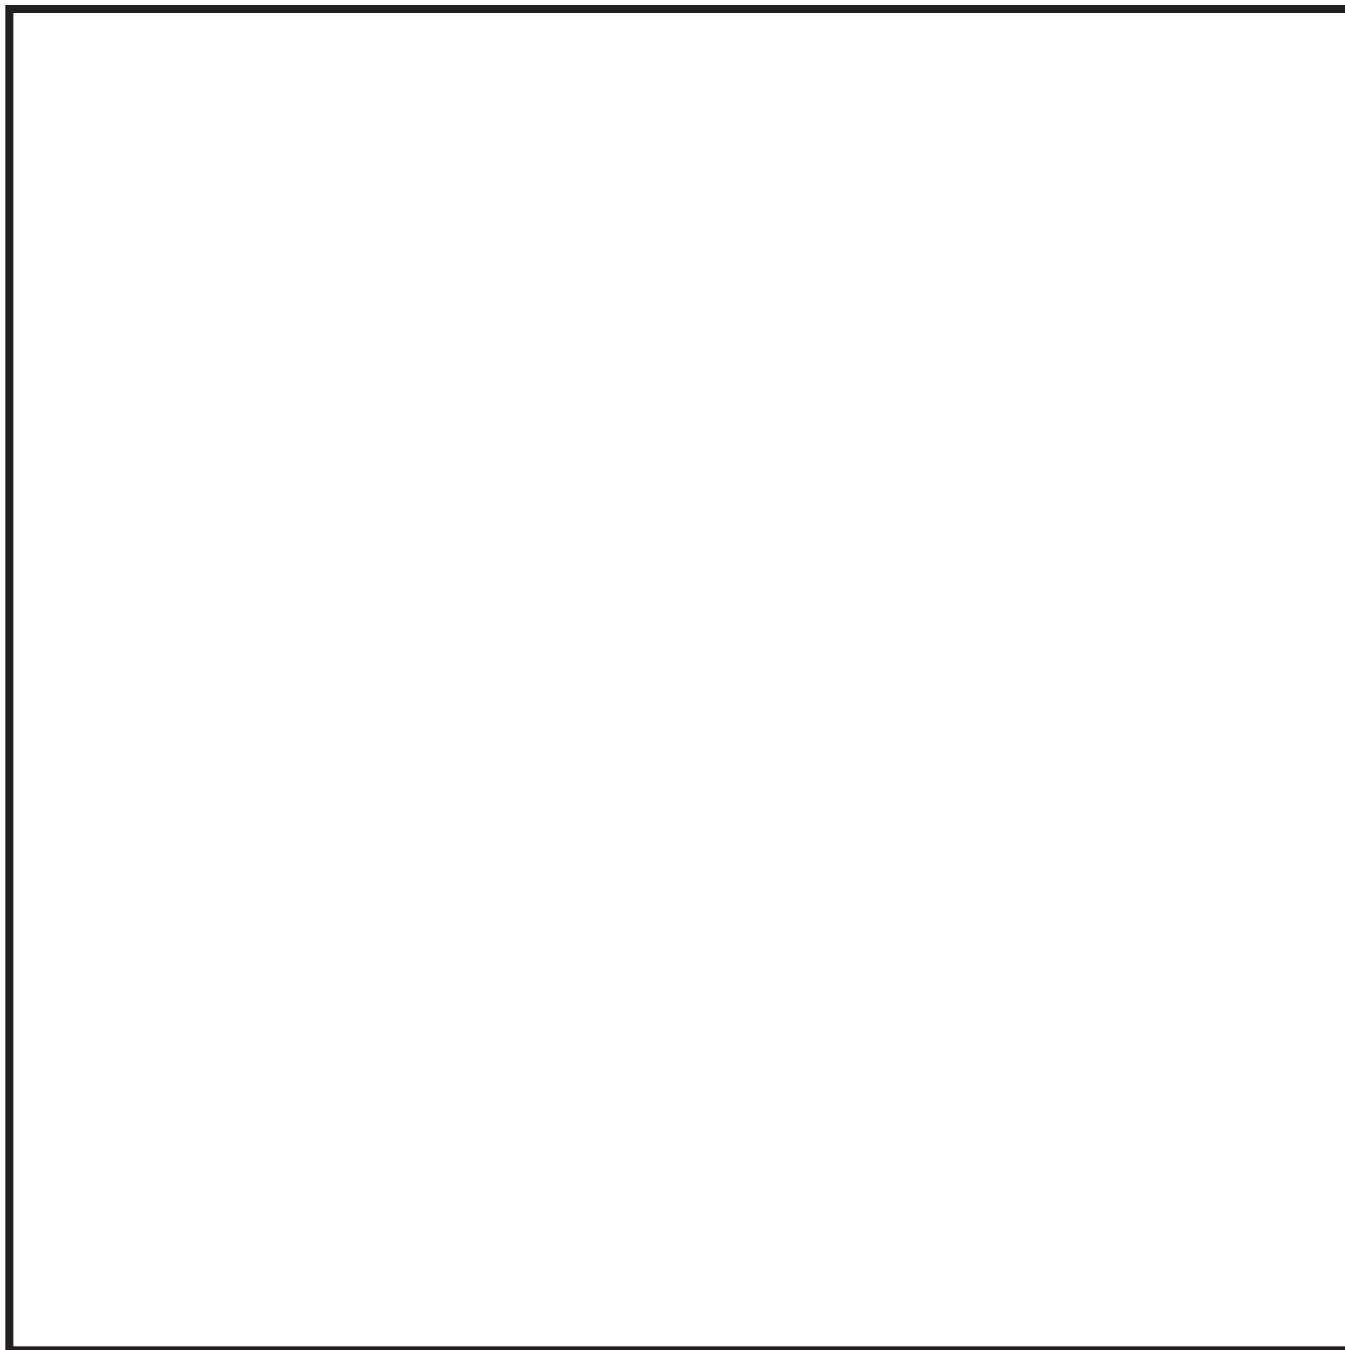

This challenge is open to kids ages 6-12. Show us your creativity and let your imagination shine!

If you have any questions, ask a librarian. We can't wait to see your designs!
