Libraries Closed

All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will be closed January 1 for New Year's Day. All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will also be closed on January 19 for Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

Adult Winter Reading

Fly into a world of good books this winter with Adult Winter Reading at the Spartanburg County Public Libraries. Stop by any library location December 1 – January 31 to pick up your Adult Winter Reading card or download it online to get started. Drop off your completed card at your local library and you'll be rewarded with a cozy beanie to keep you warm this winter (available while supplies last). Visit our website or your local library branch for more information.

Kids

What's better than riding a roller coaster? Building your own! Roper Mountain Science Center will teach us to be engineers as we design a prototype coaster for our own theme park. Registration is required for this program, and it is best suited for ages 6-12.

At Mini-Makers, we'll be using fabric and markers to decorate our own canvas bags. You can use them to carry your library books, or anything else you need! Registration is required for this program, and it is best suited for ages 6-12.

Teens

Games are better when they're HUGE! Bring your friends in to play our Giant Games: Jenga, UNO, and more!

Sometimes, you just want to hang out with your friends (and some snacks) and read a good book. Silent Book Club is just what you need!

Adults

The November Sourdough class was so popular that we're doing it again! We'll complete all the prep needed to develop a sourdough starter. Initial supplies, ingredients, and instructions will be provided to the first 15 signups.

Foothills Book Circle is reading Kate Morton's The Clockmaker's Daughter this month. Come get your copy at the circulation desk!
