WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE BOILING SPRINGS LIBRARY IN MARCH 2025

Beekeeping for Beginners

Join us on March 3 at 10:30 a.m. as we learn more about the time commitment of raising hives, expected honey yields, and the critical role of honeybees in pollination. This event is presented in partnership with the Spartanburg Beekeepers Association.

Mining Memory: When Real Life Meets Fiction

Thursday, March 6 at 10:30 a.m.

Memory might be the most valuable tool a writer possesses. Join award-winning author Scott Gould for a workshop designed to stir up some long-forgotten memories. He will discuss strategies for building fiction around those memories and teach you to tell good lies about the truth. Come prepared to write and share as he jogs your memory.

Trailblazing Women at NASA

Thursday, March 20 at 12:00 p.m.

Come celebrate Women's History Month by exploring the accomplishments of five trailblazing women who have greatly influenced NASA's mission. This is a multi-media presentation presented by NASA Ambassador David Leaphart.

Seed Library

Grow your world! Visit the Seed Library at the Boiling Springs Library and choose from heirloom food, flower, and native plant seeds ready for planting. New to gardening? Seed packets feature complete planting instructions including when to plant, spacing, light requirements, and more. The Seed Library was created in partnership with the Spartanburg Soil and Water Conservation District to:

- provide education on sustainability in growing food, flowers, and/or native plants
- increase local food production and promote healthy diets
- help to preserve plant diversity with regional and heirloom varieties
- promote backyard conservation practices to protect Spartanburg's natural resources
