pronunciator:

Pronunciator is a comprehensive platform offering 315 world language courses, suitable for all learning styles.

The platform supports auditory learners with audio lessons and audio chat, visual learners with videos and images, and kinesthetic learners with interactive activities and text chats.

Text-based learners have access to personalized daily lessons, grammar explanations, and printable phrasebooks, while visual learners benefit from movies and thousands of photos.

Instead of written language, illiterate learners can use organized images for clear comprehension.

With Pronunciator, anyone can effectively learn languages according to their preference and needs.
