WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE LANDRUM LIBRARY IN MARCH 2025

Adults

Need help with your taxes? Volunteers from VITA-The United Way will be at the Landrum Library on Friday, March 7 and Friday, March 28. Please call 1-866-892-9211 with for more information or to set up an appointment.

What makes the southern Appalachian region so special? Join Conserving Carolina and Dr. Mike Coggeshall on March 25 as we discuss the Something In These Hills that forges such strong connections between the land and its residents.

The Foothills Book Circle will be discussing Fiona Davis's The Spectacular on March 27. Come check out your copy at our circulation desk.

Teens

We're all about creating and playing! Come in to win great prizes at Bingo on March 11, and personalize a mug for yourself or a friend on March 25. Bring your friends!

Children

Homeschoolers, how does your garden grow? We'll learn about plants and create our very own terrariums to bring home on March 18. Please register online in advance.

We've got flowers for the Mini Makers, too – come in on March 20 and make a beautiful suncatcher with pressed flowers. Please register online in advance.
