Everyone

March 17 - Explore the hidden worlds of your lawn! Entomologist Mike Ferro will lead us on a journey around our very own landscapes to see who's living there and why.

Kids

March 5 - We're building St. Patrick's Day creations in Lego Club!

March 10 - Animals need water, too, but how do they get it? Homeschoolers will learn about the ways that animals adapt to their environments as we welcome Beth Button from the Watershed Ecology Center. Registration is required for this program.

March 19 - Spring is here, and it's time to think about your garden! Mini-Makers will be decorating a pot and picking out seeds to grow.

Teens

March 10 - Come show off how smart you are and win! We'll be having a Jeopardy tournament and you could win great prizes!

March 24 - Love your favorite books, but wish the covers were cooler! We're bedazzling books with diamond painting. Bring your favorite book to decorate or pick out one of ours to keep!

Adults

March 11 - Who's up for a great game of Scrabble? Bring your friends or come and meet new ones!

March 26 - The Foothills Book Circle is reading Charles Frazier's Cold Mountain this month. Pick your copy up at the circulation desk today!
